Re: Moreno, Miguel CDC # AR-2301 Court Docket: 13F03873

Miguel Moreno is a well-established criminal with a long history spanning back [REDACTED] three decades, and should not be paroled. His current conviction and his prior criminal record show that he has zero intentions to follow the law and therefore poses an unreasonable risk to the community.

Moreno has made it abundantly clear, he will not follow the laws of our state and will continue to expose our community to the destruction and violence that surround the drug culture. As stated above, Moreno's criminal career extends back to the 1980s. [REDACTED] it is his consistent commission of felony offenses that is most alarming.

Moreno's felony record extends back to the 1990s. His felony history is as follows:

1. 12/27/91 Violation of HS 11378 – Felony Possession of Narcotics for Sale (Sacramento County);
2. 6/24/92 Violation of HS 11378 – Possession of Narcotics for Sale (Yreka County)
3. 8/14/93 Violation of HS 11377 – Possession of Narcotics (Sacramento County)
4. 8/25/94 Violation of PC 273.5 – Domestic Violence (Sacramento County)
5. 6/10/99 Violation of HS 11378 – Felony Possession of Narcotics for Sale (Sacramento County);
6. 1/31/06 Violation of HS 11378 – Felony Possession of Narcotics for Sale and PC 2800.2 – Felony Evasion (Sacramento County);
7. 7/6/11 Violation of HS 11378 – Felony Possession of Narcotics for Sale and PC 12021 Felon in Possession of a Firearm (Sacramento County);
8. 6/5/14 Violation of HS 11351 Possession of Narcotics for Sale and HS 11352 Transportation of Narcotics for Sale (Placer County)
9. 1991-2014 Almost a dozen Parole Violations

For each of the separate offenses listed above, Moreno was committed to state prison. It is clear that Moreno will not stop committing crimes regardless of the punishment. He has been sent to prison by three separate counties. Moreno has continued to victimize our community [REDACTED] [REDACTED] He has shown that he will not follow the laws and will continue to expose drugs to the men, women and children of our state. He has also committed acts of violence, illegal gun possession and felony evasion from law enforcement. Moreno has a complete disregard for the health and safety of whatever county he lives. It cannot be said enough how blatant Moreno's complete disregard for the laws and safety has been over [REDACTED] decades. It is clear that inmate Moreno should not be released as he poses a significant, unreasonable risk to the community. Parole should be denied.

Respectfully submitted,

Anthony Ortiz
Deputy District Attorney
