RE: York, Travis Coleman; CDCR # AM4476

February 10, 2015

Thank you for this opportunity to address the Board regarding the Board's administrative review of Inmate Travis York and his suitability for early release.

Inmate York has a history of serious felony convictions, including vehicle theft, larceny from a person, weapons possession, and first degree burglary. Furthermore, in the incident that led to his current period of incarceration, Inmate York while committing yet another first degree burglary, attempted to punch the homeowner who chased him from the home. A search of the trunk of the vehicle Inmate York used to get to the burglary, revealed a loaded shotgun. When Inmate York was arrested on the felony burglary warrant, he resisted arrest and was found in the possession of a weapon along with indicia of drug sales.

His behavior since his incarceration is less than exemplary as well. A review of Inmate York's C-File reveals a history of disciplinary actions involving serious violations, including; refusing to undergo drug testing in November of 2013, possession of a cellular phone and charger in November of 2013, and falsification of CDCR documents in October of 2014. The Board is respectfully encouraged to review the "Confidential" portion of York's C-File for a more complete picture of his in-custody activities.

Given York's long and dangerous criminal history, and his continued refusal to follow the rules and regulations set forth by the CDCR, the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office requests that the Board find that Inmate York is not an appropriate candidate for early release at this time.

Respectfully,
