

Defendant Convicted for Sexually Assaulting Five Children

Sacramento County
District Attorney's Office
Semper Justitia

DATE: December 18, 2019

CASE: Jose Placencia Iniguez (Case #18FE000818)

PROSECUTOR: Deputy District Attorney Catrina Ranum, Special Assault & Child Abuse Unit

Jose Placencia Iniguez was convicted by a jury of eight counts of committing a lewd act on a child under the age of 14, five counts of committing a lewd act on a child under the age of 14 by force, duress, menace, or fear and one count of committing a lewd act on a child 14 or 15 years old. The jury also found true the allegation that Iniguez committed the offenses against more than one victim.

Iniguez sexually assaulted two female family members when they were between the ages of 6 and 14 years old. The two victims disclosed the abuse to each other and to their family in 2015. In 2017, three additional female family members disclosed that Iniguez had sexually assaulted them when they were between the ages of 7 and 12 years old. During the investigation, Iniguez fled to Mexico, where he was subsequently arrested and extradited back to the United States to face charges.

Iniguez faces a maximum sentence of 325 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for January 24, 2020, at 9:00 a.m. in Department 27 before the Honorable Steven Gevercer.
