

Defendant Convicted of 11 Counts Child Sexual Assault

Sacramento County
District Attorney's Office
Semper Justitia

DATE: July 6, 2021

CASE: Alvaro Rodas (17FE021142)

PROSECUTOR: Supervising Deputy District Attorney Chris Ore, Special Assault & Child Abuse Unit

Alvaro Rodas pled to four counts of lewd acts upon a child under 14, two counts of forcible lewd acts upon a child under 14, four counts of sex acts with a child under 10 years old, and one count of child endangerment.

Rodas sexually assaulted several children over a period of more than 10 years starting in California in 2006. He also forced some victims to participate in sexually abusing other child victims. In June of 2017, Sacramento police officers responded to reports of sexual abuse made by two of the victims. When officers conducted a consent search and search warrant of Rodas's home, they found child pornography and videos of some of the sexual assaults against the victims.

Rodas faces a sentence of 130 years to life in prison. Sentencing is set for October 15, 2021, at 1:30 p.m. in Department 16 before the Honorable Delbert Oros.
